TEACHER'S DAY

FIS students enthusiastically celebrated Teacher's Day on 4 September with great pomp and show. They showcased their love and respect for their teachers while honouring the late Dr S Radhakrishnan.

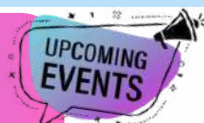

The children recognised the day as a great opportunity to acknowledge the hard work, patience, and dedication of their teachers. The students enthralled their mentors and guides with a series of engaging performances.

The event began with a stunning Bharatanatyam performance, which was followed by an array of captivating dance performances. Later, the school band serenaded the teachers with melodious renditions of the classics. Skits depicting humour in the classroom entertained the teachers and students alike. For the grand finale, the teachers joined the students on stage, feeling the true extent of the love and respect displayed by them.

The entire event encapsulated the bond that students share with their teachers while emphasizing the importance of such torchbearers in our life.

On AIR!

Our students were invited to have an interaction with RJ Lani on the occasion of Teacher's Day. This provided them with a wonderful stage to express their gratitude for their teachers. This interaction gave our students an insight into the workings of a radio station. The interview was aired on the show, 'Drive with Lani' on Radio One-94.3 FM on 11 September.

CBSE WORKSHOP

FIS hosted a CBSE Capacity Building Programme to emphasise the importance of storytelling as a pedagogical tool. The event was brought to life by Jeelu Mary Varghese and Kakoli Mukherjee. They emphasised how weaving concepts into stories makes learning more engaging, memorable and meaningful.

The Poetic Impulse

I am lightning, flash and flare
A jagged blaze that splits the air
I strike with power, bold and fast
One fierce blink, then I am past cloud to ground, I rule the sky
I roar I dazzle, then say goodbye.

~Hanshini, IX A

The Hermit Crab

I am a hermit crab
who's ready to grab
any shell that comes in my way
I dare say

Is that a shell?
I hope it will fell
let me try it on
I hope it lasts till dawn

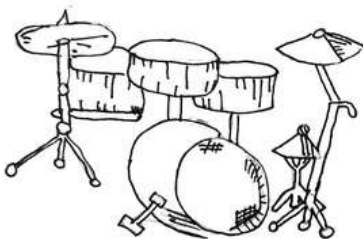

Oh, yes! It fits
It won't break into bits
This will be my home
a warm cosy home.

LIFE IS LIKE A DRUM - EVEN WHEN THE RHYTHM CHANGES, YOU GOTTA KEEP
THE BEAT GOIN'

In life, just like while playing a drum, it's necessary to be steady and balanced, no matter how the situation changes around us. A drummer must keep the beat consistent, even when the song gets faster, slower or more complex.

FIRE

I crackle bright in ^{the} darkest night,

I twist and dance with golden light,

My touch is warm but not polite.

I hunger deep for wood and air,

I leap and roar without a care,

A glowing beast both bold and rare.

I light the world and sometimes scare,

I'm hard to catch, so just be aware -

I vanish fast, but leave a flare.
